TEN PER CENT LAW REPEALED

When 1913 Legislature Enacted New Garnishment Law.

Decision Handed Down by 300 Killed or Hurt When Sol-Judge Whitcomb Today.

In a garnishment proceeding heard oday, in the second division of the district court, Judge G. H. Whitcomb at Mannheim, Germany.

"I did not intend to be a candidate if Mitchell agreed to run," said Mr. Mote. "It was agreed that if he would get in I would stay out. His telegram put him out of the race definitely and today, in the second division of the district court, Judge G. H. Whitcomb held that the ten per cent feature of the garnishment law does not apply

The decision is directly in line with the law as laid down by Judge Hugh Fisher of the court of Topeka a few days ago, but in the former case Juce Fisher held that it was the intent of the degislature to make the ten per cent feature apply after as well as before judgment. He held that the legislature repealed more than it intended to when the 1913 garnishment law was passed.
